

Quiz for Sections 16-19

1. A hair transplant is a surgical procedure that transfers healthy hair follicles harvested from a _____ to a balding area on the scalp.
 - a. donor patient
 - b. donor bank
 - c. donor site
 - d. blood bank
2. The _____ method of harvesting hair follicles leaves multitudes of small, round scars on the back of the scalp.
 - a. Strip
 - b. FUT
 - c. FUE
 - d. None of the above
3. Scar tissue has these associated issues:
 - a. doesn't always hold pigment well
 - b. may require more frequent touch ups
 - c. may have inconsistent texture
 - d. all of the above
4. _____ is a technique used to soften scar tissue and encourage the remodeling of collagen and elastin.
 - a. microdermabrasion
 - b. microorganism
 - c. microbiology
 - d. micro needling
4. Problematic skin would include these:
 - a. dry skin
 - b. scar tissue
 - c. sun burned skin
 - d. all of the above
5. If a client has noticeable dry skin on his scalp at the time of the consultation, you would recommend _____.
 - a. moisturizing and shaving
 - b. exfoliating and moisturizing
 - c. exfoliating and clipping
 - d. shaving and mattifying
6. Typically, female pattern baldness _____ progress to the extent that male pattern baldness does.

- a. does
 - b. does not
 - c. might
 - d. none of the above
7. Female smp treatments can take _____ than/as male treatments.
- a. the same amount of time
 - b. less time
 - c. more time
 - d. one session more
8. _____ occurs when there is undo stress placed on the hair follicles for an extended period of time.
- a. traction alopecia
 - b. alopecia areata
 - c. alopecia totalis
 - d. alopecia universalis
9. The _____ Scale is a measure of female pattern balding.
- a. Norwood
 - b. Fitzpatrick
 - c. Norton
 - d. Ludwig
10. Which of the following are NOT recommended right before a smp treatment?
- a. appropriate hair length
 - b. clean scalp
 - c. heavy exercise
 - d. followed pre-care instructions
11. Traction alopecia is typically caused by _____.
- a. tight braids, weaves or hair extensions
 - b. tight pony tails, long hair or wigs
 - c. braiding, coloring or highlighting
 - d. all of the above
12. Dry needling will improve the health of the scalp because of _____.
- a. a moisturizing affect
 - b. a hardening affect
 - c. decrease in blood flow
 - d. increase in blood flow
13. When performing smp on a female client, the frontal hairline must be _____.
- a. soft and well blended

- b. a crisp edge
- c. natural but dark
- d. none of the above

14. When consulting with female clients, expectations need to be _____.

- a. unrealistic
- b. average
- c. realistic
- d. underestimated

15. A transplant scar will usually camouflage quite effectively if the tissue is _____.

- a. heavily keloided
- b. small and pink in color
- c. depressed
- d. flat, smooth, and relatively soft